

1. Where has Pip seen Herbert Pocket before?
Pip has actually seen Herbert Pocket when he fought him at Miss Havisham's house. He was the random gentleman who fought him, and Pip had knocked down.
2. Why was Herbert there?
Herbert is actually Pip's roommate.
3. What is Herbert's opinion of Estella?
4. How does Pip describe Herbert's personality in Chapter 22? How does he describe his physical features?
5. Why does Herbert give Pip a nickname, and what is it?
Herbert gives Pip a nickname because he remembers Georg Handel's work. The nickname he gives is Handel.
6. What does Herbert tell Pip about Miss Havisham?
7. What does Herbert mean when he says he spends his days looking about him? What does it tell you about him?
8. Describe the Pockets as parents. Why does Pip say the children are "tumbling up?"
9. Why does Matthew Pocket tell Pip he isn't "an alarming personage?" What is Pip's impression of Matthew?
10. What does Pip ask for from Jaggers, and how does Jaggers respond?
Pip asks for money from Jaggers, and Jaggers just gives him the money.
11. Who gives Wemmick gifts, and why?
Wemmick's customers give gifts. It is to pay the expenses, and they claim that it is "property and portable"
12. What does Wemmick tell Pip to look out for when he dines with Jaggers?
Wemmick tells Pip to look at the housekeeper, calling her a "wild beast tamed."
13. Why doesn't Jaggers worry about being robbed? What does that say about him?
Well Jaggers is a lawyer, so if someone robs him, he's already very familiar with the legal stuff. Jaggers is not scared of being robbed.
14. Describe the Wemmick's house. What does it tell you about his character?
Wemmick's house can be described as a small little house with something that looks like guns from the top. I think that this shows us that Wemmick is very creative and does not really care about how others really perceive him - he just is himself.
15. Who is the Aged, and how does Wemmick treat him?
Aged is actually Wemmick's dad. Wemmick treats him politely and kindly.
16. Which of Pip's classmates does Jaggers like, and why? What nickname does Jaggers give him?
Jaggers likes Pip's classmate, whose name is Drummele. Jaggers gives him the Spider as his nickname.
17. What is in Biddy's letter, and how does Pip react to it?
Biddy's letter contained news about Joe coming to visit him. Pip doesn't receive this well, as he will be embarrassed by Joe's visit.
18. Who is the avenging phantom, and why does Pip call him that?
Pip calls Pepper the avenging phantom. Pip gives Pepper this name because he doesn't do much but eats a lot.

19. What does Joe call Pip? How does Pip react?
Joe unexpectedly calls Pip sir. Pip is very surprised and is embarrassed about his previous thoughts about being embarrassed because Joe is uneducated.
20. Pip decides he must stay with Joe when he returns home. Why doesn't he? What does this tell you?
Pip decides not to stay with Joe as Estella tells him who is fit for you now and who is not. Pip agrees. I think that this tells us that Pip is easily influenced by society, that he doesn't actually think for himself.
21. Who are the passengers on the coach with Pip? How does he react to them?
One of the passengers on the coach was the convict that he helped in the beginning of the story. Pip becomes nervous and uneasy.
22. In Chapter 22, Pip finds out why Miss Havisham's clock stopped at twenty minutes to nine. Why was the clock stopped there? What does this symbolize?
The clock stopped 20 minutes before her dream was going to happen. This symbolizes her death.
23. Describe the ways that Pip is transformed in London - by name, personality, and appearance
He has changed most aspects of himself - he has become a person of a higher tier.
24. Pip goes to dinner at Wemmick's, and then at Jagger's. How do the homes of these two men differ? What does each man's home say about his personality?
Wemmick's home is something that would be considered cozy, there's a lot of creativity in the house making it special. However, Jagger's house is the exact opposite. Very boring, formal, and generic. Wemmick can be described as a easy-going type of guy, and Jagger can be described as formal.
25. What does Pip's experience with the avenging phantom tell you about his character? How is London affecting him?
It tells us about the whole servant-master theme. London is affecting him as this change in status is really changing how he thinks of himself and others.
