

A3S2

1. Write down three of the oxymorons Juliet uses to describe Romeo after learning what happened between Romeo and Tybal. Explain why she uses this literary technique to describe her young husband.
"dove-feathered raven", "beautiful tyrant", and "end angelical". Juliet uses this literary technique to show that she's struggling between her family and Romeo.
2. The Nurse says, "Shame come to Romeo!" How does Juliet react to the Nurse?
She gets angry and defends Romeo.
3. Where is Romeo hiding?
He is hiding in Lawrence's cell

A3S3

4. In S3, lines 33-39, why does Romeo say that he is less honored than carrion-flies?
Romeo says he's less honored than carrion-flies because the flies can at least have freedom to buzz around.
5. What three reasons does Friar Lawrence give Romeo to show that he should be happy?
Friar Lawrence says Romeo should still be happy because he's still alive, in love, and just banished
6. In S3, the Nurse gives Romeo a gift from Juliet. What is the gift?
A ring

A3S4

7. Capulet explains to Paris that Juliet is upstairs crying about Tybalt. He says, "Look you, she loved her kinsman Tybalt dearly, and so did I. Well, we were born to die." From this passage, explain how Capulet feels about his nephew. Why do you suppose, he felt this way?
I feel like Capulet doesn't really mind his nephew's death. He claims that everyone will die anyways so the time doesn't really matter. He felt this way because maybe he wasn't that significant in his life.
8. What decision does Capulet make, thinking that it will cheer up Juliet?
Capulet makes the decision for Juliet to marry Paris.

A3S5

9. Why do Juliet's parents believe she is upset? What is their plan to help cheer her?
Juliet's parents think that Juliet is still sad about Tybalt's death. Their plan to help cheer her up is to then plan a wedding.
10. Earlier in the play, Capulet said Juliet will get to have a voice in whom she marries. Now, he's raging at his daughter for speaking up against his choice. Explain why Capulet has changed his mind about listening to his daughters opinion about her future spouse.
Capulet has changed his mind because then he would be embarrassed and ashamed about his power in the family.
11. How does the Nurse describe Paris in S5, lines 218-223?
A lovely gentleman
