Juliet	"And I will do it without fear or doubt, to live an unstained wife to my sweet love (4.1.89-90)." "And all my fortunes at thy foot I'll lay and follow thee my lord throughout the world (2.2.147-148)." "Or bid me lurk Where serpents are; chain me with roaring bears; (4.1.79-90)" "Give me, give me! O, tell not me of fear!" (4.1.121)"	Juliet is responsible because she is young and acted impulsive. She is also blinded by her love. The first reason that Juliet is at fault is because she is willing to die for Romeo. Because of this she made super unwise decisions and thought the only solution was to die. The second point is that she refused to marry Paris. This proves that Juliet's emotions blinded her, which caused her to make impulsive and blind decisions. A counter argument is that it is Friar's fault, However, Juliet threatened to kill herself if he did not make it, so Friar was basically forced to make the potion. Juliet manipulates, threatens, and gaslights the Friar. In conclusion, her fake death was very unwise, and she could have lived on if she agreed to the marriage.
Friar Lawrence	"If, rather than to marry County Paris, thou hast the strength of will to slay thyself, then is it likely thou wilt undertake a thing like death to chide away this shame that cop'st with death himself to scape from it; and if thou darest, I'll give thee remedy. (4.1.71-76)" "Tomorrow night look that thou lie alone; Let not the nurse lie with thee in thy chamber; Take thou this vial, being then in bed, And this distilling liquor drink thou off; When presently through all they veins shall run. A cold and drowsy humor; for no pulse Shall keep his native progress, but surcease ... Thou shalt continue two-and-forty hours, And then	When Friar Lawrence says the first quote, he makes the decision to rashely and implies that he has a solution Friar Lawrence was the creator of this plan, and he didn't even want the Nurse to know. If the Nurse knew, the Nurse could have prevented things. Romeo was to receive a letter about this plan by Friar Lawrence, but since the letter did not arrive in time, Romeo killed himself.

	awake as from a pleasant sleep. (4.1.91-97;105-106)" "Hold! Get you gone, be strong and prosperous in this resolve. I'll send a friar with speed to Mantua, with my letters to thy lord. (4.1.122-124)"
Nurse	"Hie to your chamber. I'll find Romeo to comfort you. I wot well where he is. Hark ye, your Romeo will be here at night. (2.2.138-140)" "O, she says nothing, sir, but weeps and weeps; and now falls on her bed, and then starts up, and Tybalt calls; and then on Romeo cries, and then down falls again" (2.3.99-102) "There stays a husband to make you a wife ... to fetch a ladder. (2.5.69-73)"	The Nurse encourages Juliet to marry Romeo, despite their family backgrounds. This led the two to die for each other. The Nurse runs around delivering messages, which causes the two to develop a strong relationship. This eventually leads to why the two would die for each other.
Capulets	"JULIET: Good father, I beseech you on my knees, Hear me with patience but to speak a word. CAPULET: Hang thee, young baggage! Disobedient wretch! (3.5.159-162)" "TYBALT: Boy, this shall not excuse the injuries. That thou hast done me; therefore turn and draw, ROMEO: I do protest I never injured thee, But love thee better than thou canst devise. (3.1.63-66)" "What say you? Can you love the gentleman? This night you shall behold him at our feast. (1.2.80)"	Lord Capulet is blaming Juliet on why she will not get married with Paris. Because of this, he calls her a disobedient wretch. Because of this, Juliet has to go through her faking her death. Tybalt provokes Romeo, which causes the death. Therefore it is Tybalt's fault Juliet is forced to meet Paris, but because she is in a bad mood and she is rebellious, this leads to her going through this whole mess.
Fate	"From forth the fatal loins of these two foes. A pair of star-crossed lovers take their life, whose misadventured piteous	It just happened that the two families had children, and that they fell in love. When Romeo discovered that Juliet was a

	overthrews doth with their death bury their parents' strife (Prologue)" "Is she a Capulet? O dear account! My life is my foe's debt. (1.3 131-132)" "O serpent heart hid with a flow'ring face! Did ever dragon keep so fair a cave? Beautiful tyrant, fiend angelical! Dove-feathered raven, wolvish-ravens lamb! Despised substance of divinest show! Just opposite to what thou justly seem'st, (3.1 79-84)"	Capulet, it shows that their relationship was not meant to work out anyways. Juliet was constantly going back and forth between her love for Romeo and loyalty to Romeo. Romeo also happened to arrive at the graveyard 2 minutes late. If Friar Lawrence has arrived 2 minutes earlier, this could have prevented their deaths. The reason why the letter arrived late was because of the delivery person, they avoided the typical road as there was a black plague
