

Current Events Articles Forms
Arizona

1. Article
  - a. Source Title: azcentral.
  - b. <http://www.azcentral.com/story/opinion/op-ed/2017/10/09/google-waymo-self-driving-car-arizona/741414001/>

(Accessed on November 11,2017)
  - c. My Turn: What Google's self-driving cars say about Arizona
By Joe Rinzel
2. State News
3. People Involved:
Governor Doug Ducey, Uber, University of Arizona, Department of Transportation, Department of Public Safety, Arizona Self-Driving Vehicle Oversight Committee, and Google
4. Time Happened: Published on October 9, 2017
5. What happened? What was the article about?

Arizona allowed Google's self-driving cars to zip around the streets of Phoenix, which is beneficial to local residents, consumers, businesses, and the state's economy. In 2015, governors allowed

6. How is this related to the state?

Arizona is one of the first states other than California to be open to tech industry.

7. How is this important?

This will be a big revolution in the tech industry. It is predicted that in 40 years from now it will be illegal for people to drive; it will be all automatic.

8. There not many reactions in this article.

Source:

<http://www.azcentral.com/story/opinion/op-ed/2017/10/09/google-waymo-self-driving-car-arizona/741414001/>

(Accessed again on 11/13/2017)