

Current Events: Turkey

Posted: March 26, 2019

Author: Adam Lusher

Title: Turkey airport shooting: Police officer 'shoots colleague' and then 'turns gun on self' inside terminal

People Involved: N/A

Summary:

An airport police officer was shot by another officer. The two officers had a argument, which is most likely why the officer shot the other officer. The case of the argument is not known. 4 shots were fired inside the building. 3 shots were aimed at the other officer and 1 shot at himself.

Link:

<https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/europe/turkey-airport-shooting-today-kayseri-erkilet-police-attack-a8840441.html>

Website: Independant

Current Events: Japan

Posted: March 27, 2019

Author: Cathy Adams

Title: JAPAN, SINGAPORE AND SOUTH KOREA HAVE WORLD'S MOST POWERFUL PASSPORTS

People Involved: Dr Christian H Kälin

Summary:

Japan, Singapore, and South Korea have the world's strongest passports. Citizens of Japan, Singapore, and South Korea can visit 185 countries without a visa. This is good to know as it would be important to know when traveling internationally and asking yourself, "Hmm... Do I need a visa in order to go to this country?" The United States placed 6th. The third most powerful passports are Denmark, Finland, France, Italy, and Sweden. See the list until 10th by clicking the link.

Link:

<https://www.independent.co.uk/travel/news-and-advice/passports-power-index-2019-japan-singapore-south-korea-travel-henley-a8841621.html>

Website: Independant

Current Events: Hong Kong

Posted: October 10, 2016

Author: Ernest Kao

Title: Three arrested for flying drones over Hong Kong Formula E event

People Involved: Jeremy Tam Man-ho and Anthony Cheung Bing-leung

Summary:

Three people were arrested for flying drones over the Hong Kong Formula E Event. The drones were spotted at around 4:20 PM. All the people were male and aged from 28 to 42. They broke 1995 Air Navigation Order. The law states that they cannot fly within 50 metres of residential areas or individuals, and 5 kilometers of an airport. They also cannot fly above 300 meters.

Link:

<https://www.scmp.com/news/hong-kong/law-crime/article/2026754/three-arrested-flying-drones-over-hong-kong-formula-e-event>

Website: South China Morning Post